

WASHINGTON'S HOME HOGGA OF THE PROPHETS

Officers of Visiting Masons
Place Wreath on Tomb
at Mt. Vernon.

The Union Station this afternoon, and will march to the National and the Metropolitan Hotels. At Strat Grotto, of Cleveland, the famous organization having six men in its drill corps the combined weight of whom is more than 1,000 pounds, is located at the Fredonia Hotel.

The Raleigh, the New Ebbitt, Shoreham, Arlington, St. James, Congress Hall, New Varnum, Driscoll, the Grand, and a half dozen other well-known hotels of Washington are filled with scattering delegations. At the New Varnum are also seventy-five members of Islam Grotto, of Pittsburgh.

Special trains are bringing hundreds of the prophets into the city. It is believed that there will be more than 10,000 Masons in the city especially to attend the supreme council meetings by tomorrow morning.

Kallipolis Grotto has found itself face to face with one of the most serious problems in its history. Preparations for entertaining thousands of prophets have been made, and everything has been in readiness for days for this entertainment.

It isn't the large number of prophets which is bothering the committee; it's the unusually and unexpectedly large number of women which accompanied the members of the mystic order. The plans of the committee on arrangements have gone awry, and this afternoon there is much hustle and bustle trying to straighten things out.

All to Be Ready.

Before night, however, everything will be shipshape, so far as caring for the guests is concerned. Chairman Boss, of the reception committee, said he never had seen as many women attend a fraternal convention as are in Washington at this time. Keder Khan Grotto, of Syracuse, brought as many women visitors as delegates.

An informal reception will be tendered Supreme Grand Commander Hatch and the members of his council at the New Willard tonight. Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the prophets will march from the New Willard to the new Masonic Temple by a circuitous route. Tomorrow night the grand ceremonial session, the feature of the convention, will be held at the New Willard. A buffet luncheon will be served. Already 2,500 tickets have been sold for the luncheon.

The following grottoes already have reached Washington and have taken quarters at the various hotels: Zuleika, of Buffalo; Cashmere, of Elmira; Chenderia, of Wilkesbarre; Mokanna, of Hamilton; Khan Khan, of Syracuse; Laia Kooka, of Rochester; Keder Khan, of Syracuse; Al-Strat, of Cleveland; Islam, of Pittsburgh; and Yusuf Khan, of Akron.

Flagg, on Bail, Brands Arrest as an Outrage

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—After remaining in jail from late Saturday, when they were arrested on Federal warrants charging them with using the United States mails to defraud investors, Jared Flagg, broker, Daniel N. Morgan, former treasurer of the United States, and other associates, obtained their freedom on bail this afternoon. They declare they will fight their arrest, which they denounce as an outrage, and will bring suits against the Federal officials responsible for alleged false arrests.

In the meantime the Federal grand jury which is now in session took up consideration of the case against Flagg and his associates. A score of customers of the concern and its former employees were summoned and questioned regarding the methods pursued.

One important witness is missing. She is Madeline Russe, nineteen years old, and secretary of Jared Flagg. It is alleged by the Federal officials that she was instrumental in interesting a number of noted financiers in the operation of the "blind pool" variety. Miss Russe is said to have a very remarkable manner and mind, and the postoffice officials declared at her arrest to be planning the operations of the concern.

Meanwhile Flagg's customers and the Federal officials are trying to get possession of $600,000 cash which Flagg was supposed to have on hand. The Federal officials had hoped to find Flagg's books, which they seized when they raided his offices, the location of this cash, but failed. It is now believed this money is in a safe deposit vault somewhere.

TURKEY READY TO SEIZE PROPERTY OF ITALIAN CITIZENS

Porte to Act Quickly as Soon as War With Italy
Is Certain.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 25.—The First army corps is being mustered for embarkation to Tripoli, to reinforce the 30,000 Turkish troops already there, in readiness to oppose an Italian seizure of the colony.

VIENNA, Sept. 25.—The attempt of Italy to seize Tripoli has awakened all Turkey to the fact that she must fight to maintain her territory, and all classes of Turks are rallying to the support of the government. The reserves have been summoned to the colors, and the order expelling all Italians from Turkish territory is in the hands of the premier, signed by the Sultan, ready to be issued as soon as it is certain war must come.

The Turkish commanding officers have been instructed to place all their commands on a war footing. Advice received here today say that if Italy begins an invasion of Tripoli the fighting will be most bitter, and unless Italy is able to land more troops than the early reports indicate her commanders think will be needed to conquer and retain the city, they are likely to be overwhelmed.

There are 50,000 Italians in Turkey and their financial interests are very large. The Porte, it is understood here, has sent a curt message to Italy saying all private property was considered subject to seizure if any armed Italian force shall land at Tripoli.

No confirmation is as yet obtainable of the report that the Navigazione Generale Italiana's steamship Regina Margherita has been seized by Turkish officials at Messina, Asia Minor, but the report is accepted as true in government circles here.

Italy's attempt to acquire Tripoli by sheer strength has caused alarm here, and in most of the capitals of Europe. It is feared that it will open new Mediterranean problem just at a time when it seemed certain that it was to be settled.

Uncle Sam Has Only Trade Interest In African State

The United States has only a trade interest in Tripoli over which country Italy and Turkey are about to go to war, according to a statement at the State Department today.

While there is a treaty between this country and Tripoli, this does not bind the United States to guarantee the integrity of the territory of Tripoli, but simply places the commerce under specific protective measures.

This, according to the Department of State, is all the interest the United States has in Tripoli or in the threatened war between Italy and Turkey. This interest would hardly be involved in the trade relations guaranteed through the existing treaty could not be affected, it was pointed out, whether Italy or Turkey controlled the little African nation.

This information was given out in relation to questions were asked as to the relationship between the United States and Tripoli and as to the likelihood of the country being drawn into the troubles over the small African state.

Italy Is Divided Over Question of War With Turkey

ROME, Sept. 25.—Italy is torn by dissension concerning the threatened clash with Turkey over an Italian grab of the Turkish province of Tripoli. Socialists and other extreme radicals throughout the country are holding mass meetings to protest against war.

Other classes of the population are in a fever of patriotic enthusiasm, and urging the government to maintain a firm stand.

PAROLE BOARD MAY ACT TOMORROW ON CASE OF WALSH

Banker - Convict's Friends
Confident He Will Win Freedom.

The parole board of the Leavenworth penitentiary is prepared today to take up the petition of John R. Walsh, the Chicago banker, as soon as Robert V. La Dow, inspector of prisons, reaches Leavenworth.

Friends of Walsh are confidently predicting he will be paroled, and it is understood, from semi-official sources, that the Department of Justice may deal leniently with the aged banker-convict.

Mr. La Dow is reported en route to Leavenworth today, and it is probable that the Walsh case will be reached tomorrow, although the department has received no advice.

Walsh was eligible for parole, under the recently enacted law, a few days ago, and his petition will be among the first considered by the board.

The Leavenworth parole board, upon which Walsh bases his hope for immediate release, following the President's recent refusal to grant an absolute pardon, is composed of Mr. La Dow, superintendent of all Federal prisons, and the warden and physician of the institution.

Authority Over Pipe Lines Is Discussed

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 25.—In an effort to determine the scope of the Interstate Commerce Commission's authority over pipe lines, a hearing was begun here today by Commissioner Franklin K. Lane.

The interstate commerce act, as amended last year brings pipe lines within the jurisdiction of the commission, but up to the present time no attention has been given to subject the pipe lines to regulation.

The present investigation will be extended to Oklahoma, where considerable complaint has been made concerning the methods and operation of the big oil-carrying pipe line companies.

It is considered one of the most remarkable displays of farm products ever shown in this section of the country.

GAVE WIFE ALL HIS SALARY, NOW SUES FOR ITS RECOVERY

District Courts to Decide;
for First Time, Man's Right to Change Mind.

What chance has a man to get back wages he gives his wife, providing she does not spend the money, will be determined in the suit filed in the District Supreme Court today by Charles W. Kaminska, a railroad contractor and engineer, against his wife, Mabel E. Kaminska.

At the request of Attorney Robert E. Mattingly, who represents the husband, Chief Justice Cibaugh granted a temporary injunction restraining Mrs. Kaminska from disposing of $1,100 in cash and $400 worth of household goods, pending the disposition of the suit.

This suit is believed to be the first of its kind ever instituted in the District Court, the legal point involved being whether a husband can recover money he has given his wife after there has been a breach in their relations.

Objects to Her Company.
Complaint is made in the petition that the husband objects to company his wife has been keeping in Washington since she left him several months ago, when they were living at Petersburg, Va. He asserts that he has beseeched her to forsake her companions and again to keep house for him, but she has been obstinate. He has repeatedly implored her, he says, to return to him, giving her the privilege of selecting the place where they shall live.

Failing to reach any reconciliation with her, Mr. Kaminska sets forth in his bill that he asked her to share with him his earnings—"being his own hard earnings," in the language of the bill. This compromise, he tells the court, he deems fair, as he has "turned over every dollar of his salary since he was married, except such money as was needed for their support. He also states that he has clothed her 'even expensively.'"

Where Money Is.
The bill sets forth that there is $400 of the family's money on deposit with the Merchants and Mechanics Bank, and $700 with the Metropolitan Building Association. The $400 worth of furniture is in charge of the Fidelity Storage Company, having been placed there by Mrs. Kaminska.

It is alleged that the first breach came when Mrs. Kaminska refused to live in the country town, her husband being in the construction of the trolley road from Falls Church to Great Falls. He makes the allegation that she returned to Washington, and then went to Atlantic City, where she remained for five weeks.

Mr. Kaminska is willing to forgive and forget the past, but if his wife will not meet him on this basis he wants a division of the family funds.

World Congresses Are Delayed by Cholera

Dispatches received at the State Department today say that three great international congresses which were to have been held in Rome within the next few weeks have been postponed on account of the alarming spread of cholera throughout southern Italy.

It has become necessary, the messages said, for the International Tuberculosis Congress to postpone its Rome meeting until next April; for the International Geographical Conference to put off its meeting until spring; and later in the day a telegram came saying that it had been found wise to defer the meeting of the International Archaeological Congress until some later date.

The Italian government is unable to control the situation and great uneasiness prevails throughout the whole kingdom.

The greatest secrecy is being maintained by the Italian government. All press reports sent out from that country are censored.
